Blu Buchanan is a Black non-binary femme and scholar-organizer in Sacramento, CA. Their organizing is focused on building power among marginalized people; this manifests in their two main projects - disarming the police and collecting the stories of the Black trans community.